SHS Spirals With Sportsmanship

Sportsmanship has been the key to life at S.H.S. during the 1964-1965 term. A sportsmanship code and a flag were designed and accepted by the student body and faculty. The flag was to be flown as a symbol that S.H.S. were sportsmen after every home athletic event when the sportsmanship committee gave the school a rating of 80% or higher. Evaluation was based on the conduct of the fans, the team, the coaches, and the students. The school flew the flag many times.

The ideal of sportsmanship spread to all high school activities. Students, on every occasion became good sports. They worked harder; they had more spirit; they became more thoughtful; they took new pride in themselves and their school.

Sportsmanship is the theme of 1965 Lumberjack.

We Honor You — Our Good Sport of '65!

A good sport at all times! In her work as she helps us daily—in her conversation as she mixes wit with wisdom to chastise us severely and to lead us to greater integrity—in her foolishness as she shows us our foibles by being very humane herself—in her love for S.H.S. which she has served faithfully many years. A good sport! A good friend! A good person!

Because you inspire us to be a finer lady or gentleman, to reach loftier heights, and to love our school, we the Lumberjack Staff of 1965, honor you our faculty "sportslady" of the year—Mrs. Freida Olive.

English Students Do Creative Work

A basic knowledge of reading, comprehension, and self expression through writing and speaking is necessary in all fields. The study of English is considered so vital that it continues for all twelve years of public schooling.

English has many facets—grammar, spelling, composition, vocabulary, literature and speech. It is the backbone of all learning.

Springhill High offers many courses in this field: English I, II, III, IV and Speech I and II. Every student in high school takes four years of English. There are seven teachers in this department.

Teachers encourage self expression and personal enrichment. Creative writing is done at all levels. The tape recorded and the phonograph supplement teacher effort.

Accelerated English students go to Ruston each year for high school day. This year they saw "Julius Caesar" given by the Dallas Players.

English IV is a study of the history and Literature of England.

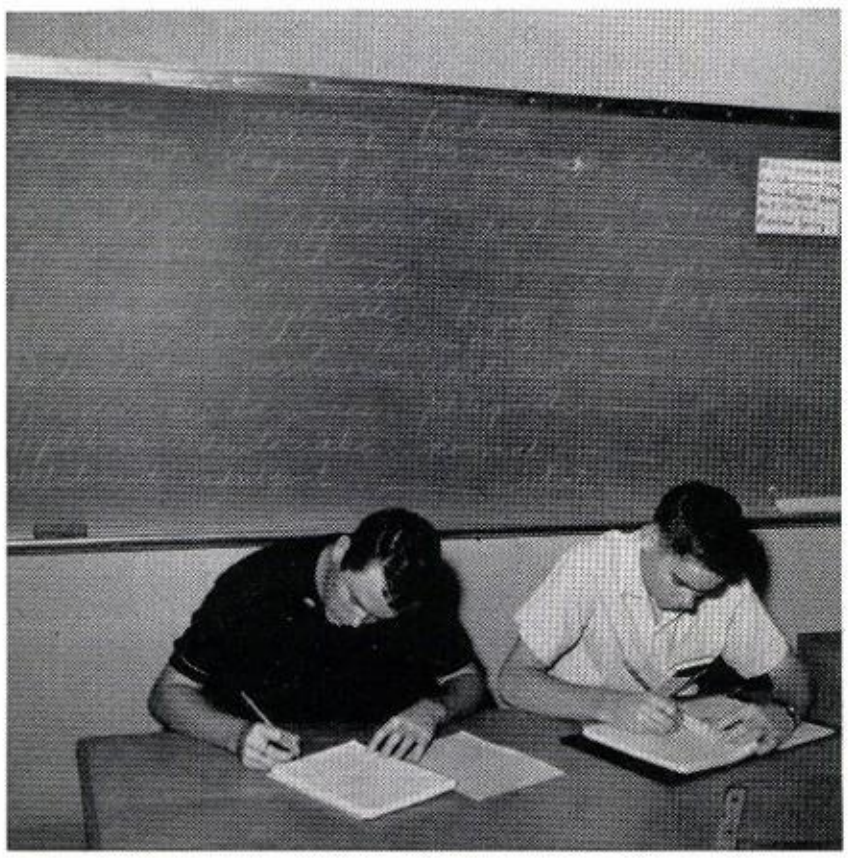
Junior English is a study of American Literature.

Becky and Barbara narrate as Mrs. Flan's class listens to "The King and I."

Nigel and Elwood are hard at work. On the board behind them is the vocabulary.



Social Studies Include Current Events

The Social Studies Department includes 5 teachers and 5 subjects: American History, Economics, Civics, American Government, and World History. Freshmen are required to take Civics; Juniors, American History. The other courses are electives.

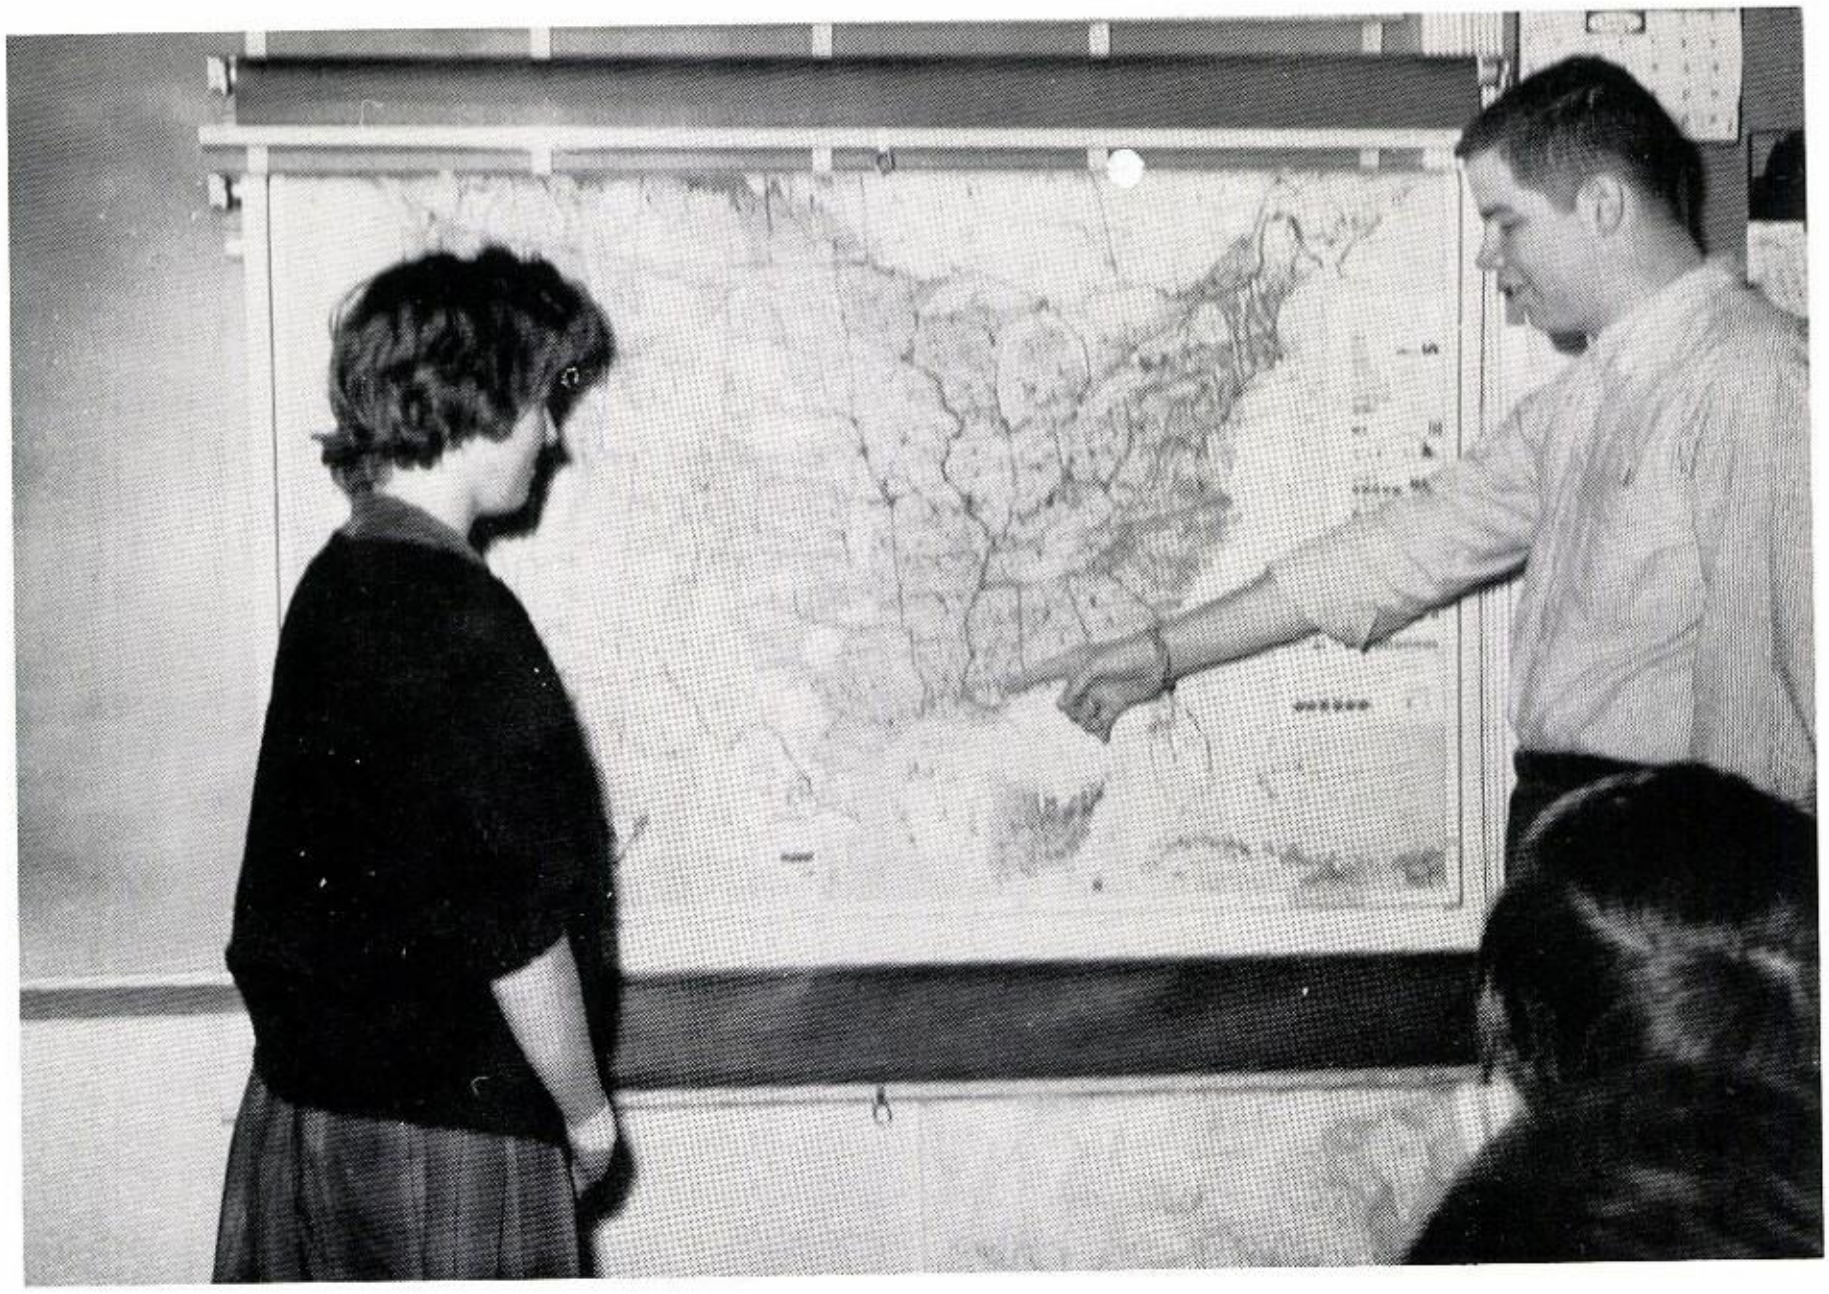
The American History course includes a 6 week study of communism. This study is concluded with a 2 day seminar featuring well-known speakers.

The Civics classes conduct the Student Government Day elections each spring.

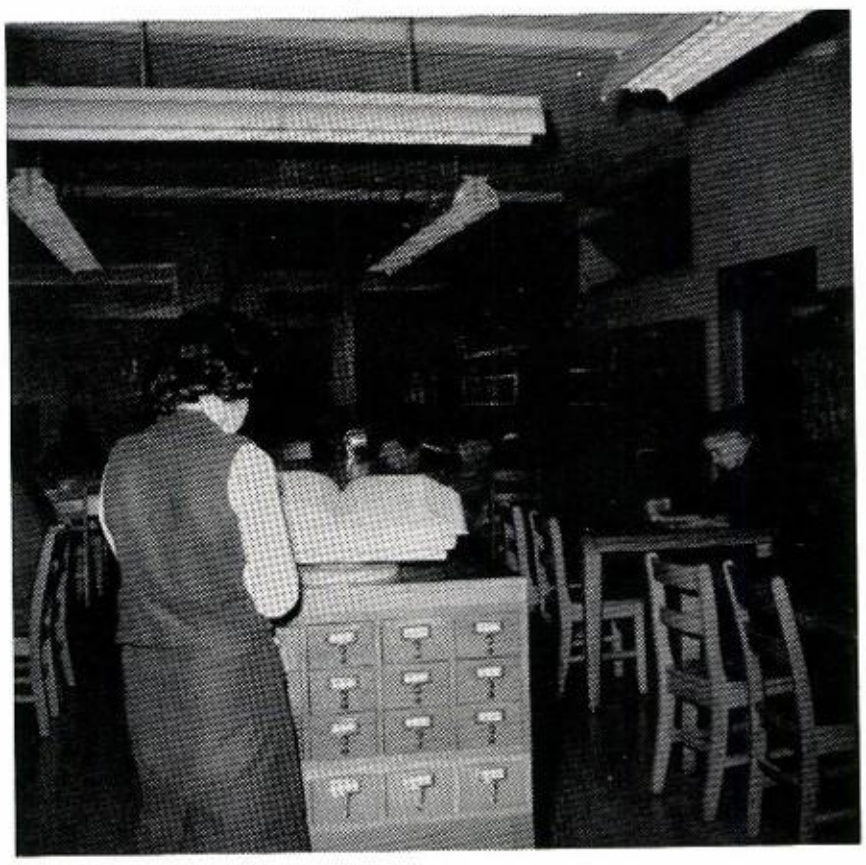
A highlight of the Civics course last spring was the hour long telephone interview with Senator Allen J. Ellender from Washington.

Reports are required in American Government.

Mrs. Bryan's Civics class held a mock election.

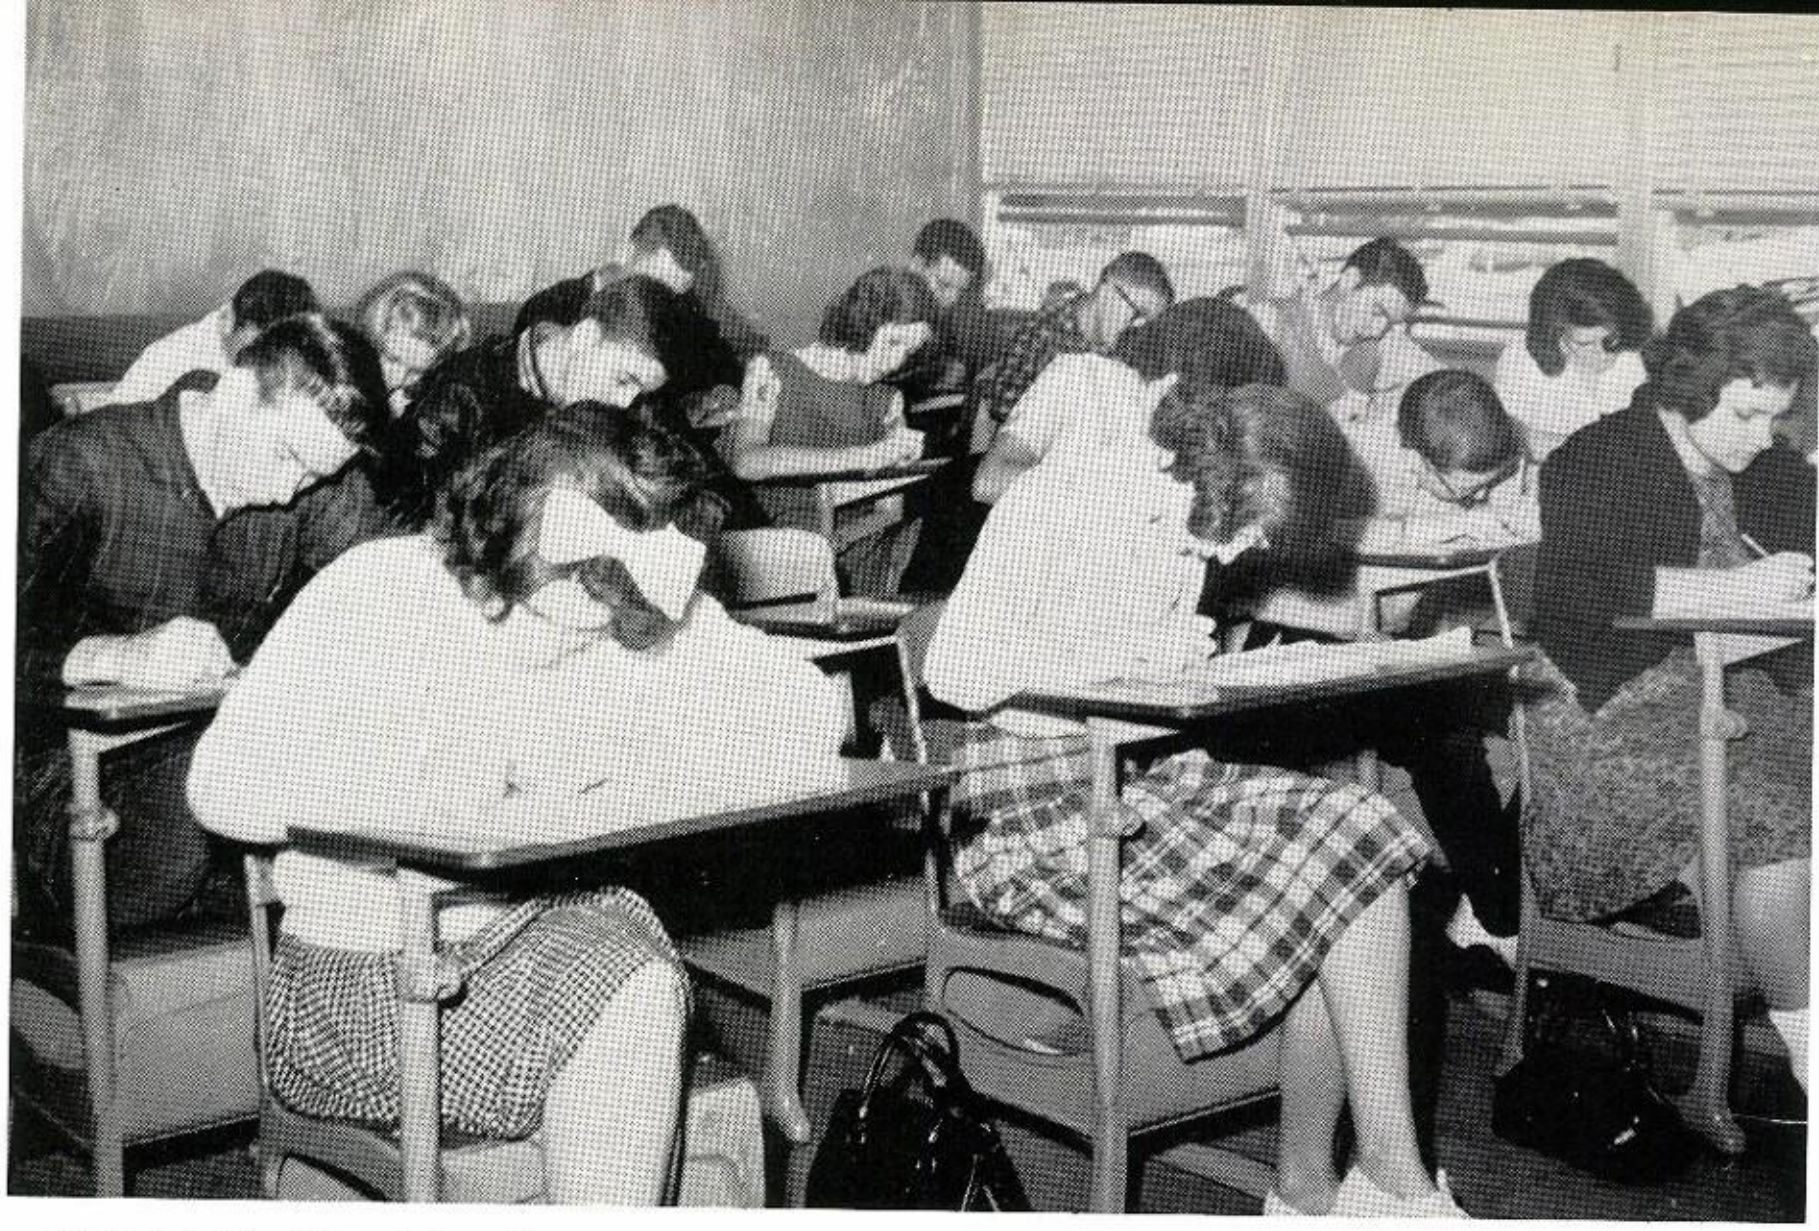


Nona Hampton and Tommy Campbell locate major campaigns of the Civil War.



Judy Teague finds that reference work helps the social studies grade.

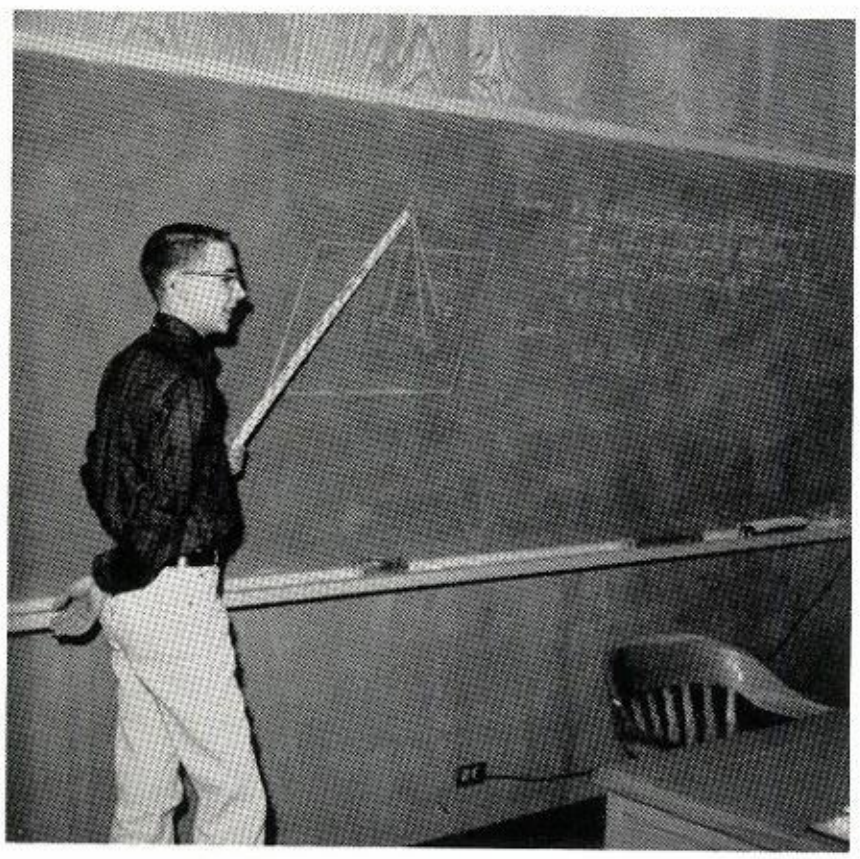
Use of the globe makes American History more interesting for Benny Wreyford and Bruce Beard.



Students in Mrs. Haynes' class take a test.

Two Math Credits Are Required

Johnny Robinson explains a geometry problem at the board.



A student must have two Math courses to graduate. He may select these from the seven subjects offered. General Math and Senior Arithmetic are available to students who are interested in the function of everyday mathematics. Algebra I, Algebra II, Geometry, Trigonometry, and Advanced Math provide excellent mathematical backgrounds for the college-bound student.

The five teachers in the math department use lectures, drills, homework, and board demonstrations to teach the courses. Accelerated classes are taught.

Four Units in Science Offered, Two Required

Recognizing the value of scientific knowledge, Springhill High School requires 2 units of science.

The Science department offers 4 courses. General Science is a basic course in scientific principles. Biology is the study of life and the factors affecting it. Chemistry analyzes chemical compounds and the elements. Physics is a physical science dealing with matter, energy, and the transformations of energy. General Science and Biology require no previous study. Chemistry and Physics, however, require a background in Algebra and other maths.

Interesting lectures and laboratory experiments by the 4 department teachers aid student learning.

A science fair held in the spring stimulates individual interest and leads students to deeper insight of scientific knowledge.

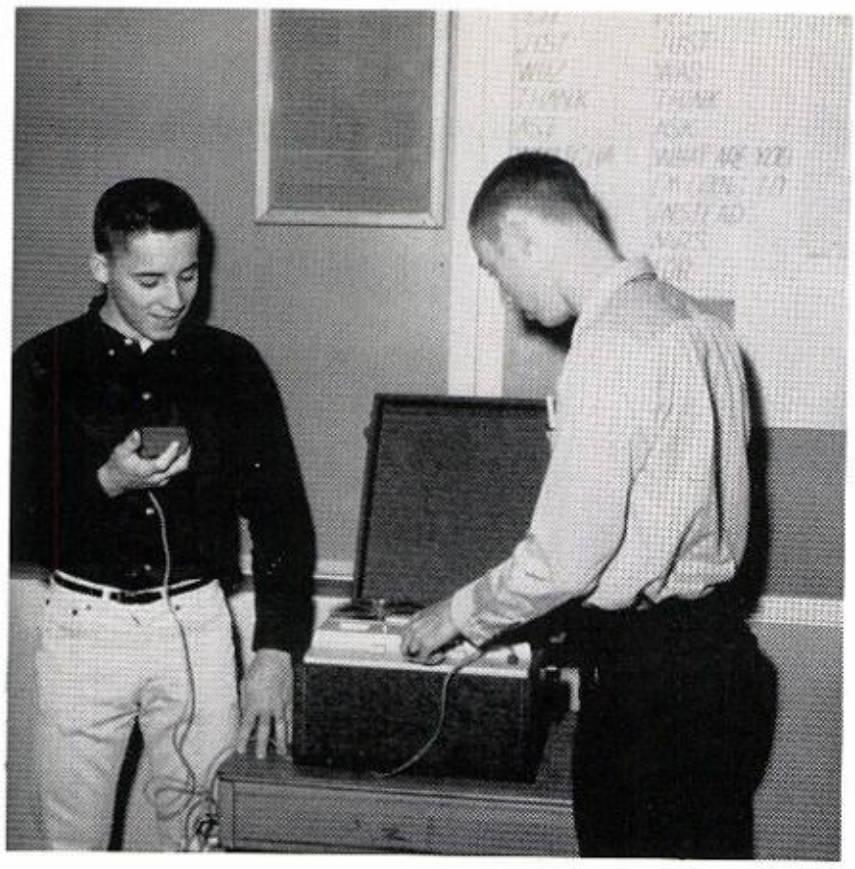
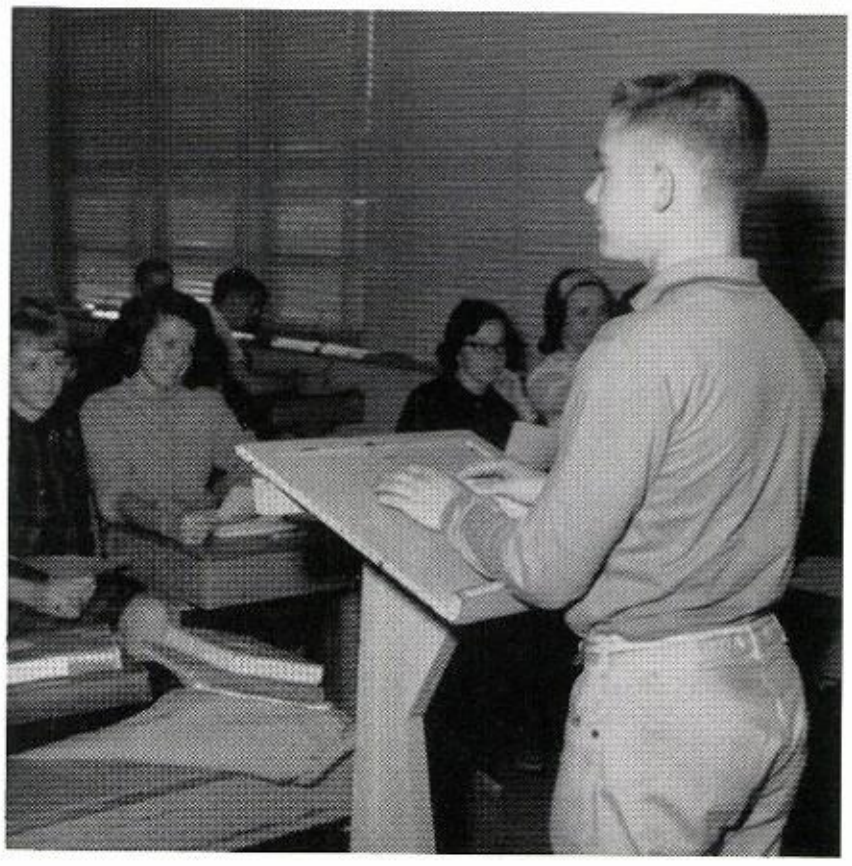
Students Enjoy Spanish

Spanish I and II are taught by Mrs. Margaret Bryan. Habits and customs of our Spanish-speaking neighbors are studied, as well as the language itself.

Mrs. Bryan spent a year as an exchange teacher in Cali, Columbia, South America. Her experiences there enrich the opportunities of her students.



Jerry and David use the tape recorder to improve their enunciation.



Larry practices making an "after dinner" speech.

Speech I and II Are Offered

Speech II students compete in the American Legion Oratorical Contest each spring. Contestants deliver a 10 to 12 minute prepared oration on Americanism and The Constitution. They also give a 5 to 7 minutes extemporaneous speech on one of the amendments.

Mr. Jack Bogan is the speech teacher.

The Speech department produces a satire of the American television "western."

Margaret does the commercial on the Speech assembly program.

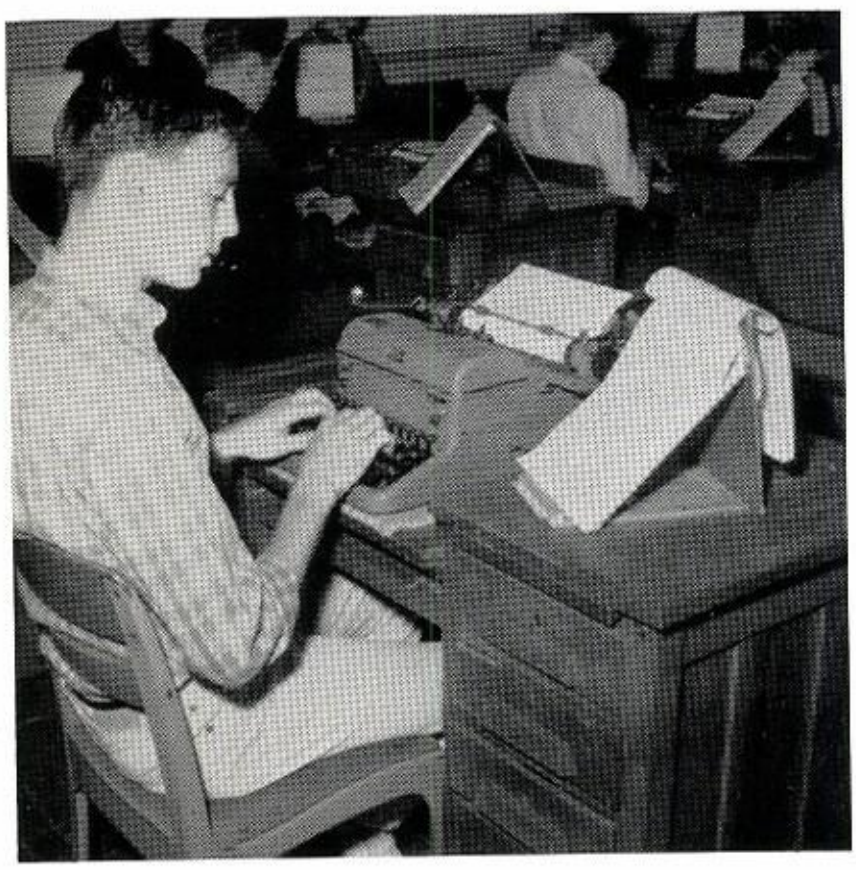
262 Students Take Business Courses

Talmadge Bolton types seriously



A student who majors in business can easily leave high school and attain a job, or he can use these skills for personal aids as he continues his higher education. Typing, Shorthand I and II, Bookkeeping and Office Practice are taught by Mr. Lynwood Rhodes and Mrs. Betty Butts.

Typing students take timed tests. They type to records. They do extensive drills and master the business letter. This course is needed before one is eligible to study Office Practice.

Shorthand I stresses the basic principles of shorthand. The speed goal on new material is 60 to 80 words per minute; on familiar material, 80 to 100 words per minute.

Bookkeeping teaches the basic knowledge of keeping accounts and financial records.

Office Practice uses typing skills as students stimulate typical office routines. Operation of the calculator, adding machine and electric typewriter are taught.

Home Economics I stresses becoming your best self, clothing for teens, and eating for health.

Home Economics II teaches simple family meals, clothing, and child care and development.

Home Economics I and II are pre-requisites to courses III or IV.

The purpose of the Home Economics department is to foster love of home, devotion to family service, and pride in community duty.

Industrial Arts Can Be 4 Year Course

A student may take 4 years of Industrial Arts. These courses are electives, but they are of primary value to future engineering students.

Industrial Arts I is an introduction to mechanical drawing. It stresses visualizing mechanical shapes and understanding lines and drawing.

Industrial Arts II gives general knowledge of various materials used in industry; such as, plastics, fiber glass, sheet metals, as well as milling and welding processes.

Industrial Arts III teaches specific training in one or more of the areas studied in IA.II. Advanced techniques and development of certain skills are studied.

Industrial Arts IV teaches advanced techniques in mechanical drawing.

Mr. Jesse Easely and Mr. Billy Taylor are the instructors in the department.

Drivers Education Brings Insurance Reductions

Driver Education is available to students if they wish to schedule it. Coach Bob Pender is the teacher.

The course includes a six-week instruction course in manipulation of the car, knowledge of traffic laws, rules of courteous driving, and laws of safety. After this a laboratory period of actual driving is given for a minimum of 6 hours.

Cars for this program are furnished by the local Chevrolet and Ford dealers on an alternate year basis.

Completion of this course entitles under 25 years old male drivers to a discount in insurance premiums on both physical damage and liability coverage.

Mary Brown is ready for her day of driving.

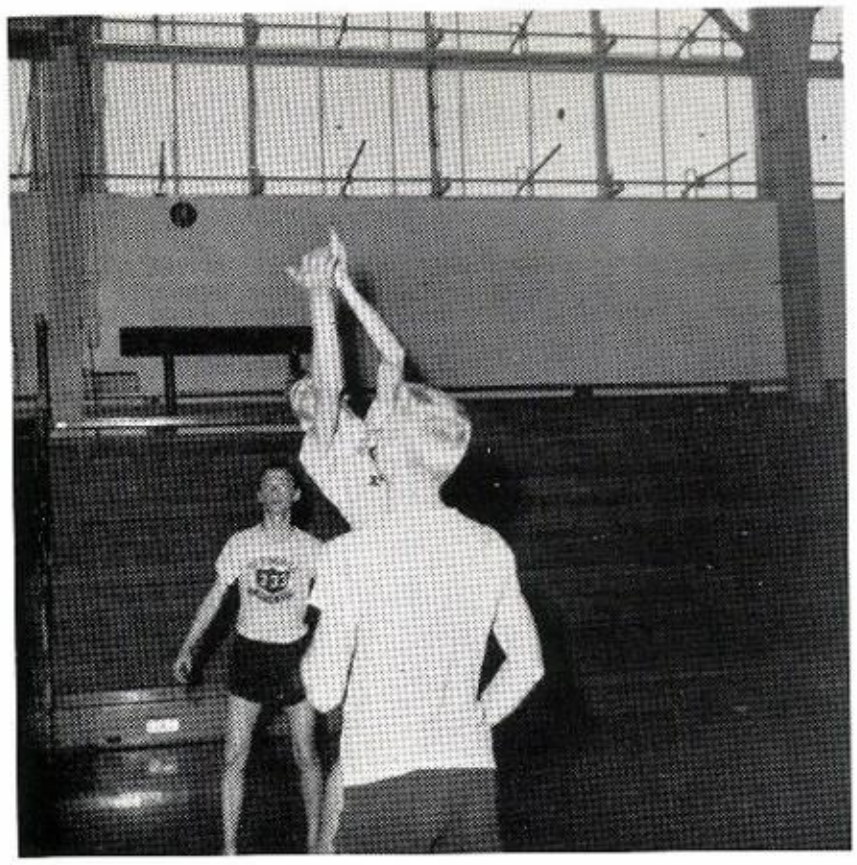
Chorus Counts 1/2 Credit; Band, 1 Credit.

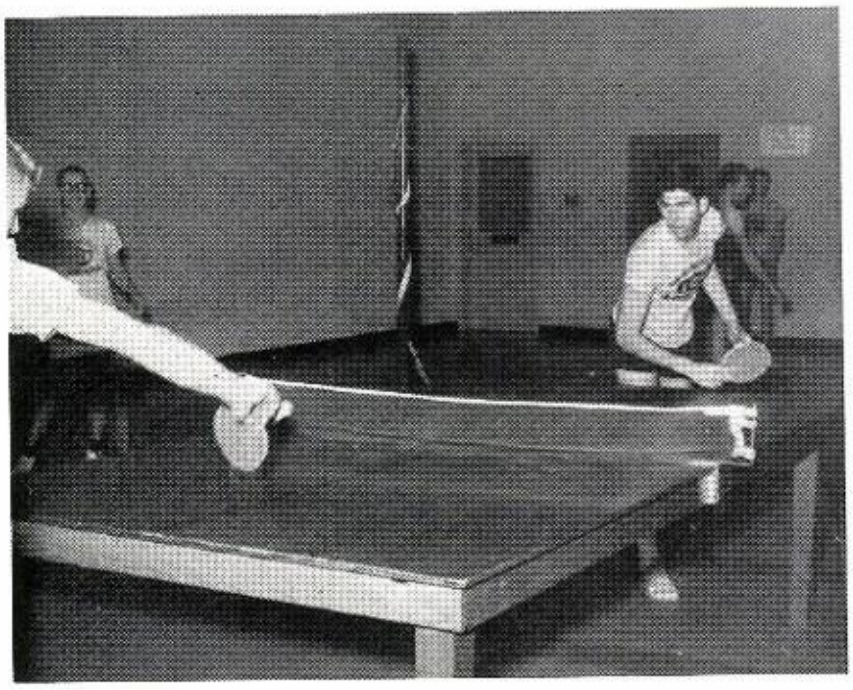
Springhill High School's Lumberjack Band and her Girl's Chorus are the pride of local citizens and a source of pleasure to neighboring towns who are privileged to hear them. Students in both the band and the chorus meet regularly scheduled classes one hour every day. Band students receive 1 unit credit per year; chorus students gets ½ credit. The band is taught by Mr. Ray Burnham; Miss Maxine Milner directs the chorus.

For the first time this year a music theory class is being taught. This course is especially important for students who intend to study music in college.

Ronnie Rhea sets the volleyball up for a spike.



Volleyball is one of the favorite sports of all the boys.



Another of the enjoyable sports is ping pong.

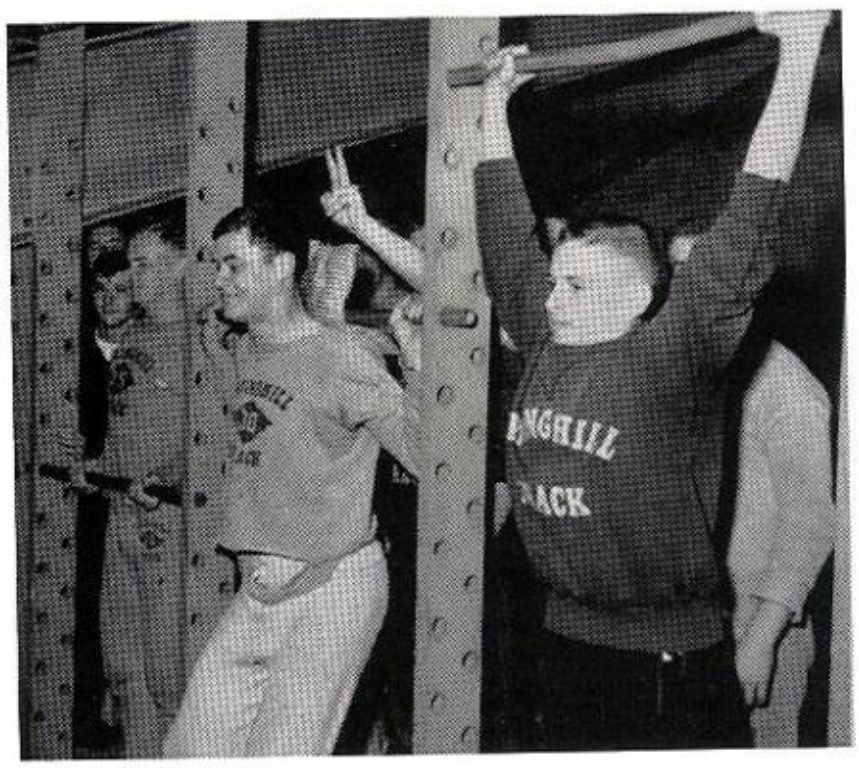
P.E. Program Adds Health and First Aid

Every student must take physical education each year that he is in high school. He receives one credit per year for this course. Mr. Marshall and Coach Farrar teach boys P.E.; Mrs. Tinker and Miss Carroll instruct the girls.

Physical education courses include instructions in health, safety, first aid, rules of basketball, volleyball, football, baseball, ping pong, tennis, shuffle board, golf, and bowling. They give the student opportunities to participate in these sports.

The gym fee is $3.00 per year. This includes locker, soap, and towels plus a subscription to the school paper.

A healthy body is essential to a healthy mind. It is the purpose of the P.E. department to instill this thought.



Isometrics is one of the newer projects of the school.

Cheerleaders Win Three Ribbons

Competing against other groups of six in their category, S.H.S. came home from Cheerleader School at Northwestern with three ribbons. The school was held five days in June.

The cheerleaders, using four uniforms throughout the season, are diligent workers. They make signs and posters, practice cheers and plan pep meetings. On game days, they pass out booster cards, lead the pep rally, and decorate the goal posts.

During the winter they decorate the gym and lead the cheers at the basketball games.

The cheerleader election is held in the spring. Girls who are interested try out before the student body. Seniors do not vote in this election.

Majorettes Perform Special Routines

The majorettes, who form the first rank of the marching band, are responsible for the front to rear alignment and spacing of the files. Their uniform step and appearance are in strict accordance with the martial effect of the band. They contribute to the band's halftime appearances by performing special routines with batons, flags, or fire batons.

The majorettes must also play an instrument in the concert band, and participate in all other band activities. Selection for the position of majorette is judged by the individual's marching, twirling, and playing abilities.

Pelican State Teaches Citizenship

Pelican State, held annually on the L.S.U. campus during August, educates youth in the privileges and responsibilities of American citizenship. For nine days citizens of this state organize their own city, parish and state governments. They perform exactly the duties that all office holders perform.

The two sessions of the state overlap. The boys attend the first. The girls arrive in time for the Governor's Ball, which ends the first session. They remain to attend Pelican State.

Delegates having completed the eleventh grade are chosen from names submitted by the faculty and former "Pelican Staters." Delegates to Girls State were Lynda Anthony, Sidney Foy, Trudy Simpson, Karen Price, and Betty Timmons. Joe Barberousse, Terry Lassiter, Sam Merritt, and Terry Bullock attended Boys State.

Junior Leaders Attend Leadership

The purpose of the Leadership Conference held at L.S.U. each summer is to train students in journalism, speech, library work, and recreation. Outstanding boys and girls who have completed their junior year and who are leaders in these areas are chosen by their club sponsors to attend.

This year Linda Slack, Linda Anthony, and Joe Barberousse represented the Lumberjack Staff; Terry Lassiter, Trudy Simpson, Susan Toms, Patricia Nesbit Burns, Linda Griffin, and Jerry Custer, the Axe Staff; and Trudy Simpson, Margaret Cypert, and Terry Bullock, the speech department.

We gave them to her officially in February! Homerooms decorated their doors with valentines to honor Teresa Maria Ribeiro de Andrade Botelho—our "Terri" from Rio de Janeiro.

Terri, living with the R. C. Smith family, has been a friend to all. We shall remember her with warmth and love as the Brazilian lady who won the hearts of S.H.S.

Lumberjacks Reach Bi-District Playoffs

The 1964 Lumberjack Eleven finished the season with a district title and a bid for a state playoff position.

Thirty-two members of the squad earned letters. Five Lumberjacks—Rodney Tyler, quarterback; Noel Cain, halfback; Rudell Vaughn, tackle; Tommy Thompson, center; and Larry Smith, end—were named All District. Tommy Thompson was named to the 2nd All State Team. Coach Farrar became district "coach" of the year.

The '64 defensive squad gained fame as the "Hungry nine plus two". They were recognized as one of the most aggressive units in the I-AA District.

Mid Season Spark Leads to District Crown

Miss Carroll tapes Lynda's knee.

The 1965 Lumberjills began the season with only two starters from last year. Hard practice paid dividends for the inexperienced squad. Hustle and desire sparked their play from mid-season and led them to another bi-district championship.

The squad entered three tournaments. They took the sportsmanship award at Taylor. They won second place in overtime at Cotton Valley losing to Shongaloo. Gibsland beat the Jills in the Shongaloo Tournament in the semi-finals.

The squad hopes for a state title.

Janace Johnson dribbles with much skill around Shongaloo guard. Lynda moves in.

Student Council Is "Hub" of School Life

The student council is the "hub" of all student activity. In addition to the officers, who are elected by the entire school, the membership is composed of one representative and one alternate from each of the 27 homerooms. The council sponsors all assemblies and all elections. It creates school spirit during all the year—in the form of gimmicks during football days, door decorations at Christmas, and clean up campaigns in the spring. The group holds an orientation day in the spring for the eighth grade students. They sponsor the foreign exchange program. They publish the student handbook.

Noel Cain, president, attended the National Student Council Convention in Bangor, Maine, last summer. Representatives of the council attended the state convention in Thibodaux, Louisiana, and the Southern Convention in Jacksonville, Florida.

Sponsors of the Student Council are Mrs. Eluida Flanakin, Mr. Lynnwood Rhodes, and Mr. Buddy Merritt.

Los Conquistadores Present Program in Spanish

The Spanish club, sponsored by Mrs. Margaret Bryan and Mrs. Dorothy Jones, was founded to promote the understanding of the customs of our Spanish-speaking neighbors. Any student having studied Spanish may be a member of the club.

The 35 members of the 1965 Los Conquistadores began the year by displaying their artistic talents in the S.H.S. fair booth at the Bossier-Webster Forest Festival.

They presented an interesting assembly—giving a play in Spanish, then re-giving it in English. The program included musical numbers by the "Banana Sisters" and an Argentine folk dance.

The dinner party at El Chico's in Shreveport was the social highlight of the year for the club.

The club won third place for its float in Springhill's Christmas parade.

Lumberjack Band '64-'65

The 1965 Lumberjack band boasts 90 members. This group, so outstanding that the mayor issued a proclamation praising them, thrilled football audiences with their outstanding half-time performances. Approximately 12 practice hours per week accounted for this "well-earned" honor. The band made a special spring trip to San Antonio, Texas. rade, the Rodeo Parade, the Christmas parade, the Webster Parish Fair Parade, and the State Fair Parade. They also participate in the Bossier High School Marching Festival.

This year they were dinner guests of the Bossier Band before the Lumberjack-Bossier game. They spent the night in the Captain Shreve hotel and appeared at the Northwestern-Stephen F. Austin game in the Shreveport stadium. The band made a special spring trip to San Antonio, Texas.

The "perfectly groomed" appearance of both the band members and their instruments is influenced by the band lieutenants. First lieutenants are Sidney Foy, senior; Patty Twitty, junior; Gary Toms, sophomore; and Jo Ann McWilliams, freshman. Second lieutenants are Joe Barberousse, senior; David Halterman, junior; Linda Reeme, sophomore; and Curtis Robertson, freshman. Tommy Spence is band president. Rose Ann Holden is secretary-librarian.

In late fall the band turns to serious concert music. They present an assembly program and a spring concert.

The band is ably directed by Mr. Ray Burnham.

Honors

Lynda Anthony

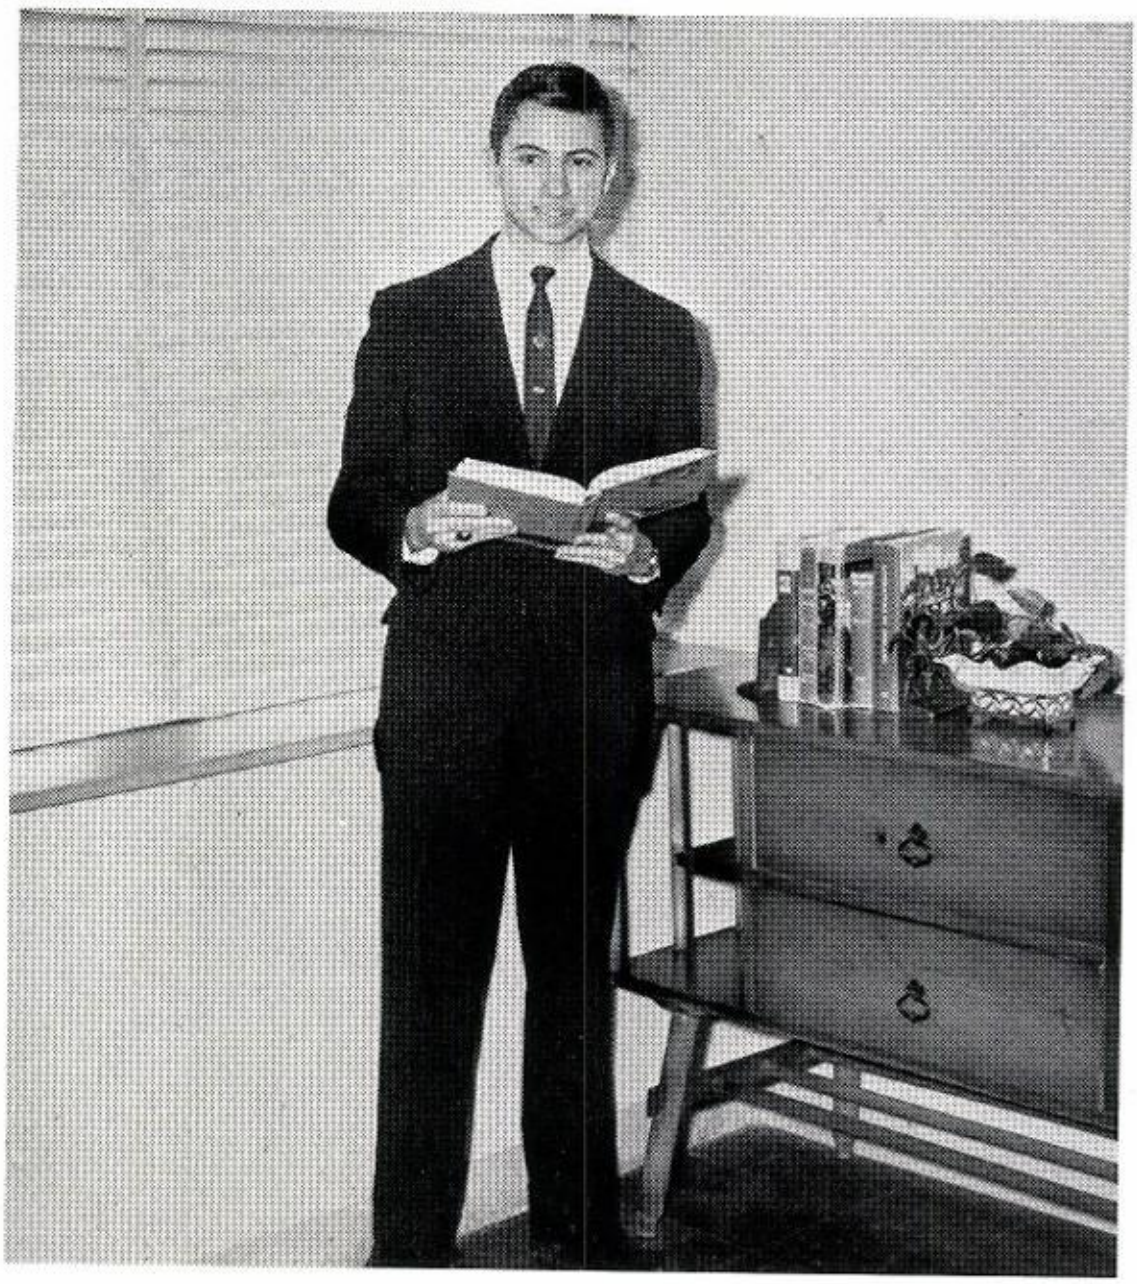
Lynda Anthony set an example of perfection which evoked the best effort of those she led. A cheerleader, a basketball player, a beauty, an A student, an annual staff assistant editor, a church organist, she was never too busy to decorate home room doors or to help with assembly programs. Lynda personifies the standards of excellence and sportsmanship for which S.H.S. stands.

Joe Barberousse

Joe Barberousse pictured by photography two years of S.H.S. life, as he worked with the yearbook. Asking for a job, he said, "I want to do something for my school." A greenhorn at photography, he did, as he always does, his best.

Joe represented the school at Leadership and Pelican State. He was a member of the Math Club and a lieutenant in the band.

Joe's sense of humor has helped us to remember him as "the Barberousse".



Noel Cain

Noel Cain led his class to a 1AA district championship as a Lumberjack halfback, presided at every assembly and student council meeting as Student Council President, sang in choral rally groups, and maintained an "A" average. Noel upheld his beliefs as he respected the rights of others. Never selfish himself, he expected cooperation of his fellow students and gained it. Noel's versatility and his devotion to duty have enriched S.H.S.

Sidney Foy

Sidney Foy reported to school at 7:45 every morning after a home athletic event to work on the "Sportsmanship" committee; supervised the making of two floats and planned every club meeting of the F.T.A., which she serves as president; was a band officer, and served as assistant editor of her church paper. She attended Pelican Girls State.

Sidney gets a job done; she is dependable.

Sam Merritt

Sam was always "behind the scenes" watching to see that things got done. Never over-aggressive, he led without feeling a sense of leadership. A "leadership" attendant, a Pelican-stater, vice-president of the student council, Honor Society member, Sam called his fellow students to service because in his humility he served so well himself.

Karen Price

Karen knew what should be done and did her best to get it accomplished. Unwilling to be narrowed to one phase of school life, she was chief majorette of the band; statistician of girl's basketball team, corresponding secretary of the Student Council, Honor Society member, and hard worker in all of school life. S.H.S. appreciates her service.

Judy Sanders

Judy attended the Southern Student Council Convention in Florida, has been a senator of the Student Council, and is known to be ready to serve S.H.S. whenever the opportunity presents itself. Judy is representative of a willingness to work beyond the limelight—to do her best whatever must be done.

Trudy Simpson

Trudy has been in every dramatic presentation held during her 4 years in S.H.S. This year she is in the Senior Play. She is Senator on the student council, chairman of the "Spirit" committee, co-editor of the "Axe", homecoming maid, and a member of the Honor Society. She attended Leadership and Pelican State. Trudy represents spirit—the spirit of S.H.S.

Nancy Waters

Nancy Waters is drum major of the Lumberjack band. She was Miss Lumberjack her freshman year and has been elected beauty her 4 years in high school. Nancy's smile among major disasters—the loss of gym sock, or the band displaced on the 40 yard line typifies sophistication amid distress. S.H.S. will remember her.

Membership in The Hall of Fame is the acme of honors at Springhill High School. Membership is awarded by a faculty committee to those who have made SHS a better place. All members are seniors.

The National Honor Society provides a means of focusing attention on students who have maintained a 3 point average for 3½ years and who have exhibited a high degree of service, leadership, and character. Members are selected by the faculty. Admission to the organization is one of the top honors a student can gain.

Twenty-one students gained membership during the 1964-65 school year. Don White is president of the group; Joe Barberousse, vice-president, Martha Florey is secretary, and Barbara Slack is treasurer.
